VERSE OF THE DAY

“The Lord exists forever; your word is firmly fixed in heaven. Your faithfulness endures to all generations: you have established the earth, and it stands fast. By your appointment they stand today, for all things are your servants”

Psalm 119:89-91

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

“If we do not die to ourselves, and if our holiest devotions do not incline us to this necessary and useful death, we shall bring forth no fruit worth anything, and our devotions will become useless. All good works will be stained by self-love and our own will... We must choose therefore, among all the devotions to the Blessed Virgin, the one which draws us most toward this death to ourselves, in as much as it will be the best and the most sanctifying. For we must not think all shines is gold, that all that tastes sweet is honey, or that all that is easy to do and is done by the greatest number is the most sanctifying.”

-St. Louis De Montfort

PRAYER CORNER

Lord make me an instrument of your peace Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt; faith; Where is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light, Where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen!!!!

Fr. Stephen Sohe, Pastor

The Mission of The Twelve

Mark 6:7-13

15th Sunday in Ordinary Times
15 July 2018

JULY 15, 2018

"We are all called to be disciples. What does it mean to be a disciple? Today's Gospel describes what Jesus told his disciples when he sent them out: what to bring, what to leave behind, what to say, what to do. As we listen to this passage today, let us imagine what Jesus is saying to us as he sends us out to be his disciples"

Working together to continue towards accomplishing Jesus' mandate in the Gospels to "love one another."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

When I feel ill-equipped for the journey, do I trust that God will provide what I need?
