VERSE OF THE DAY

“O Lord, be gracious to us; we wait for you. Be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.”

Isaiah 33:2

MEDITATION OF THE DAY.

“Some beginners, too , make light of their faults, and at other times indulge in immoderate grief when they commit them. They thought themselves already saints, and so they became angry and impatient with themselves, which is another great imperfection. They also implore God to deliver them from their faults and imperfections, but it is only for the comfort of living in peace, unmolested by them, and not for God; they do not consider that, were He to deliver them, they would become perhaps prouder than ever.”

PRAYER CORNER

Lord God, we desperately need your wisdom. You have given us a great country, founded on principles and truths from Your Word. We need men and women who will honor you, and lead us once back to You. We pray for servant leaders who live the things You love and who care more about others than themselves. Raise up leaders with the greatest potential of godly leadership, those who can ease confusion, expose illusion, and heal delusion. You alone hold the power to turn the hearts of leaders, but You listen and use our Prayers to move them into action. Help us to be faithful to care and to pursue Your heart in prayers. AMEN!

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 29, 2018

"We gather today to celebrate the Eucharist, as we do each Sunday, to be nourished by Christ's Body and Blood. In the Gospel, we hear one of Jesus' most familiar miracles, the multiplication of the loaves and fish. But every time we celebrate the Eucharist we witness another miracle, the transformation of bread and wine into Jesus' Body and Blood. May it nourish us as we go out into the world."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

In my experience, have I seen someone's generosity (perhaps my own) provide something that went much further than could be expected? What can I entrust to Jesus to satisfy the hunger? How can I, as a member of the Church-the body of Christ – contribute to the multiplication of what we have been given?
