VERSE OF THE DAY

“For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.”

1 Corinthians 15:21-26

MEDITATION OF THE DAY.

“I realize as never before that the Lord is gentle and merciful; He did not send me this heavy cross until I could bear it. If He had sent it before. I am certain that it would have discouraged me...I desire nothing at all now except to live until I die of love. I am free, I am not afraid of anything, not even of what I used to dread most of all...a long illness which would make me a burden to the community. I am perfectly content to on suffering in body and soul for years, if that would please God. I am not in the least afraid of living for a long time; I am ready to go on fighting.” -St. Therese of Lisieux

-Prayer of St. Teresa of Avila

SEPTEMBER 2, 2018

It's Labor Day weekend and a time traditionally associated with the beginning of a new school year. I that vein, let us pay attention to the lessons we are taught in today's reading. Jesus tries to teach the Pharisees and the scribes the importance of what we have in our hearts. He calls them hypocrites for concentrating on unclean hands instead of unclean hearts. Let us take this lesson to heart.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How can I avoid hypocrisy and embrace the spirit of God's commands? Am I merely fulfilling my Sunday obligation or am I a "doer of the word," putting God's word into action?

MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father this month.

Amen
