VERSE OF THE DAY

“Commit your way to the Lord, trust in him, and he will act. He will make your vindication shine like the light, and the justice of your cause like the noonday. Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him; do not fret over those who prosper in their way, over those who carry out evil devices.”

Psalm 37:5-7

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

“Through the sacraments of Christian initiation, man receives the new life of Christ. Now we carry this life ‘in earthen vessels’, and it remains ‘hidden with Christ in God’. We are still in our earthly tent, subject to suffering, illness, and death. This new life as a child of God can be weakened and even lost by sin. The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that his Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, his work of healing and salvation, even among her own members. This is the purpose of the two sacraments of Healing and Anointing of the Sick.”

PRAYER CORNER

We remember the words of St. Paul. “If one member suffers together with it” God of endless love, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of his cross. Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them. Hear our cries as we agonize over the harm done to our brothers and sisters. Breathe wisdom into our prayers, soothe restless hearts with hope, steady shaken spirits with faith: Show us the way to justice and wholeness, enlightened and enfolded in your mercy. Holy Spirit, comfort of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform our brokenness.

-Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us.

Twenty-sixth Sunday in ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

"The Grace of God is spread all over the earth. It comes to us in many ways, often through the unlikeliest of people or in the unlikeliest of situations. As we celebrate Mass Today, let us reflect on how we have experienced God's grace in our lives and open ourselves to the possibility of receiving it any times, in any place.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How do I put too much faith in those impermanent things that bring me wealth and comfort? How can I express the Spirit who I received in baptism to others?
